

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Nations of General Interest Gathered by Our Reporters.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL ITEMS

What Has Happened and What is Going to Happen Told in Short Paragraphs So That "We Who Run May Read" It in The Sun.

Readers wanted at 108 Lemon St. Lumber's calling cards in latest styles at Sun office.

L. H. Hall of Orange Heights was in the city yesterday.

Frank let Star home and breakfast team. Saunders & Earle.

For Sale—A good second-hand Moller sofa. Gainesville Furniture Co.

For the best printed stationery at lowest prices call at The Sun office.

Shirley O. Weaver made a business trip to High Springs yesterday.

Mrs. Robert Barton of Rocky Point was visiting friends in this city yesterday.

Marion Venable, the naval stores operator of Archer, was in the city yesterday.

George Morris, postmaster of Ealing, was a business visitor to Gainesville yesterday.

E. Clinton Crow and son, Clinton, Jr., were in the city from Rocky Point yesterday.

Fifty-pound can of fresh Frankfurt sausage just arrived; 15c per pound. Saunders & Earle.

Mr. Jones, proprietor of the Archer Building, was a business visitor to Gainesville yesterday.

Mrs. Margaret Shuford of High Springs was among those who favored Gainesville with a visit yesterday.

J. E. Green of Wapona is in the city, having come on business connected with the office of Asessor W. W. Colson.

L. A. Conway and F. P. Thomas of Alachua were in the city yesterday and made The Sun an agreeable call.

A. E. Summers of High Springs, one of the leading business men of that bustling town, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Flowers and little daughter, Miss Curtis, of Willetts, are in the city guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Colson.

Irvin Barnes of Lake Butler, one of the well-known and progressive farmers of that section of Bradford county, was in the city yesterday.

Thomas Hadel of Jacksonville is in the city on business. He came to attend the sale of property of the Endeavor, nearly all of which he bought, being the highest bidder.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

All copy for local notices intended for publication in the daily edition of The Sun should be in the office not later than 9 o'clock p. m. preceding date of publication.

The Tampa and Jacksonville railroad will close sales to White Springs and return as follows: Tickets good going Saturday and returning Tuesday, 1937. Tickets going and returning Sunday, 32.

Mrs. M. E. Tinsley left yesterday for Washington, D. C., where she will be the guest of friends for a few weeks. Before returning to her Florida home she expects to visit the Jamestown Exposition.

El Dorado CAFE

"Up State Over State" Grocery.

For DINNER Today

—AUG. 6—

DON'T KNOW, BUT IT'S GOOD.

—25c—

Special Any Dinner—Private or Public—THE PLACE FOR LUNCH AND ENTERTAINMENT.

Short Orders a Specialty.

Quick as a Wink,
That exactly expresses it. Just as quickly as you can see the contents of one package of

Jell-O

THE DAINTY DESSERT

Put one large box of Jell-O in a pint of boiling water. You will have prepared a dessert which will surprise and delight all who taste it. When it has become cold it will jellify and be ready to eat. For a more elaborate dessert try the following:

Banana Cream.
Put five large bananas, rub smooth with the spoonfuls of sugar. Add one cup sweet cream beaten to a stiff froth, then one package of Lemon Jell-O dissolved in one and one-half cups of boiling water. Pour in mold or bowl and when cold garnish with candied cherries. Serve with whipped cream. Beautifully illustrated recipe book free. Address: The General Food Co., Le Roy, N. Y.

California prunes and apricots just received. Saunders & Earle.

Solomon Thomas of High Springs was a visitor to Gainesville yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis of Newnanville were trading in the city yesterday.

Friends of W. H. VanNetta of North Gainesville will regret to learn that he is quite ill.

Fay-Sholes typewriter ribbons, the best on the market, for sale at The Sun office, 75 cents.

Captain A. R. Elmore of Alachua was circulating among his old friends in this city yesterday.

T. J. Cone, the lumber manufacturer of Raleigh, spent a few hours in this city on business yesterday.

J. L. Shaw of Bellamy, one of the most successful farmers of the county, was trading in the city yesterday.

Lawrence Haynes, a prominent insurance man of Jacksonville, was a business visitor to this city yesterday.

Have your stationery printed at The Sun office. First-class work promptly delivered at reasonable prices is our motto.

L. H. Bartlett of High Springs was among those who spent yesterday in this city. He paid The Sun an agreeable call.

Strong But Delicate—This may seem unusual, and it is, but Blue Ribbon Lemon possesses both delicacy and strength.

Conductor B. W. Tillis of the Seaboard Air Line, who makes his headquarters at Waldo, was in the city for a few hours yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Baker and children have returned from White Springs, where they have been recuperating for the past few days.

R. C. Philpot, High Springs, and R. T. McDavid of LaCrosse were among the visitors to Gainesville yesterday who favored The Sun office with their presence for a few moments.

Moler Barber College, Atlanta, Ga., teaches the trade by free clinic and careful instructions in few weeks. Positions waiting for everybody who will learn. Write for particulars.

John Shea, the efficient linotype machinist-operator of The Sun office, spent Sunday in Jacksonville, returning Monday. John says "It sure did rain" in the Florida metropolis Sunday afternoon.

Miss Margaret B. Taylor left yesterday for Lexington, Va., and other points in the Old Dominion State, where she expects to remain for the next two months. Friends trust that she will enjoy the outing.

Malcom G. Knight, the worthy mayor of High Springs, was among those who favored Gainesville with a visit yesterday. Mr. Knight is one of the leading citizens of his town, and has done a great deal for its advancement.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manasse and children left yesterday for Daytona Beach, where they will recuperate for the next few days. Daytona Beach is quite a popular resort for Gainesville people, there being a large colony there now.

Friends of Mrs. W. Z. Chappell, who has been quite ill in Paeolet, S. C., will be pleased at the information that her condition is much improved. The lady was very low for several days, and fears were entertained for her recovery. Her husband was summoned by wire, but writes that he is greatly encouraged.

Miss Julia Harn of Bartow was among those who favored Gainesville with a visit yesterday. She was en route home from Palatka, where she has been on a visit to relatives and friends. Miss Harn is a school teacher with a record of which she should feel proud. She may teach in Alachua county the coming year.

Robert Ellis of Alachua was a visitor to Gainesville yesterday.

N. P. Cauthen, a well-known young man of Waldo, was among those who spent yesterday in this city on business.

Casper Peeler has returned from a pleasant visit to friends and relatives at Fort White. He also attended the big barbecue at High Springs, and reports a big time.

E. K. Anderson of High Springs, proprietor of the High Springs Bottling Works, and one of the leading business men of that town, spent Sunday in Gainesville.

J. G. Dampier, Hague, F. F. Paulding, Island Grove, J. F. Townsend, Campville, and W. J. Matthews of Trenton, members of Alachua county's efficient Board of Commissioners, are in the city.

O. C. Tousey and daughters, Misses Lina and Annie, expect to make their departure today for points in Kentucky and Indiana, where they will spend a month or six weeks as guests of friends and relatives.

A. M. Endel, the Jacksonville clothing merchant, was in town yesterday on business connected with the Endel estate. Albert weighs about forty pounds more than he did when he left Gainesville. In fact, he is so much stouter that some of his old friends scarcely recognized him.

C. H. Spangler of Atlanta, who had charge of the marble work in the interior of the new Gainesville National Bank, has returned to his home. Mr. Spangler is a marble worker of national reputation, and did a fine job on the new bank here. He is well pleased with Gainesville, and has an idea of returning to Florida permanently, in which event he will make his home here.

NEW YORK RACKET

Cheapest Store on Earth.

BARGAINS FOR THIS WEEK

One lot of Dollar Corsets—only certain sizes left—all to go at 39c

One lot of 10-cent Lawns at 5c

One Lot of Lawns, nice goods, now on the 10c Table.

25 Rolls Matting just received—all grades at lowest prices.

PHIFER BROS., Phifer's Corner, Gainesville, Fla.

WILSON'S

See Our Bargain Tables

They are filled with real, genuine values that cannot be had elsewhere.

We Don't

mark fictitious prices, then "mark them down" in order to make the reductions seem greater, but strive on each and every item we sell to give you the best possible value for your money. We believe strongly in the policy we adopted when we began business 25 years ago, and will not now practice deception of any kind in order to force the sale of a few more goods.

Square Deal

Buy Now

Summer is passing and we must sell a lot of valuable Wash Goods to make room for Fall stock. We are cutting prices so deep it will pay you to buy the goods and lay them away for next season, if you don't need them now.

See Center Tables

For genuine bargains at 5c, 7 1/2c, 10c, 15c, 19c, 25c and 35c yard.

MOSQUITO CANOPIES, ready for use, at $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75 each.

We guarantee our Parasols to wear satisfactorily.

MRS. R. WILSON

Mount Vernon Lodge No. 29, Knights of Pythias, meets tonight at 8:00 in their Castle Hall over Dutton's Bank.

Work in the third rank. Visiting brothers welcome. J. A. ROBERTSON, C. C.; E. A. STRUNK, K. of R. & S.

Miss Edna McCredie of Archer was in the city yesterday. She was en route to her home at Micanopy, where she will spend a few days with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McCredie, Miss McCredie is employed as a sales lady in the store of C. W. Bauknight at Archer.

On August 5th, 10th and 11th, the round-trip rate will be one fare plus $2 from all points on the Atlantic Coast Line to Hot Springs, Ark. This makes the rate from Jacksonville $25.25. The return limit on these tickets will be August 25th. For Pullman reservation write to Frank C. Boylston, district passenger agent, Atlantic Coast Line, Jacksonville, Fla.

Mrs. F. M. Clayton and Miss Hughes of Tampa arrived in the city yesterday, having come to take the teachers' examination at the Summer Normal. Mrs. Clayton was first assistant to the principal of the Hillsboro High School in Tampa, while Miss Hughes also held a responsible position. Both are ladies of fine professional reputation, and are among the best educators in the State.

Among the visitors to this city yesterday was Captain W. P. Shettleworth of Evinston, who came trading. Captain Shettleworth is one of the most successful melon growers of the State, and during the season just closed made a fine thing financially. His melons enjoy a national reputation as being the best that can be produced, being very large and excellent of flavor. They always command a fancy price in the markets.

CONTINENTAL

RESTAURANT

Ground Floor—Next to Postoffice. Conveniently Located—Yet Private. Two Large Electric Fans. Insuring Comfort.

FIRST CLASS "CHEF."

Menu consisting of from seven to ten dishes, changed three times a day. —35c—

As good as any 50 cent meal in the City.

25c Luncheons Served.

Place for Ladies, Gentlemen and Children.

Quick Lunches a Specialty.

STOVE WOOD!

We can supply you in any quantity from one straw up

For prices apply to A. R. KRAUSE.

GAINESVILLE TIE COMPANY

Phone No. 4.

BROWN HOUSE BARBER SHOP

Ernest Papy, Prop.

A Thoroughly Modern Shop

Latest Sterilizing Apparatus, and all the Latest Tonics, with first-class artists, will be found here. We solicit a share of your patronage.

JAS. M. GRAHAM, President. G. W. HYDE, Vice President. H. E. TAYLOR, Cashier. LEE GRAHAM, Asst. Cashier.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF GAINESVILLE, FLA.—THE OLDEST BANK IN ALACHUA COUNTY.

Capital and Surplus $125,000

UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY.

FOUR Per Cent INTEREST in our Savings Department and on Time Certificates of Deposit.